

Training for a Food Bank Free Britain

WILL YOURS BE THE FIRST
FOOD BANK FREE
CITY?

ALLIANCE FOR DIGNIFIED
FOOD SUPPORT

Our training offer supports local authorities, food partnerships and community food support organisations to move beyond short-term crisis response and toward the development of a fully integrated, preventative, resilient and dignified food and local support systems.

Ending Reliance on Emergency Food Aid: a four-tiered training model

Level 1: DIGNITY

Dignity and Community
Food Support

FOR: Community food support organisations, emergency food aid provider, LFPs

WHAT: A practical, interactive introduction to embedding dignity within community food provision, using the ADFS Dignity Toolkit to audit and improve current practice

Level 2: RESILIENCE

Trauma informed training and structured support for resilience

FOR: Community food organisations, emergency food aid providers and LFPS

WHAT: Embedding trauma-informed practice, structured volunteer support and clear governance processes

Level 3: STRENGTHENING

Working together as local authorities and food partnerships to strengthen food systems

FOR: Local authorities, food partnerships and community food organisations

WHAT: A strategic training for local authorities and food partnerships to strengthen community food systems by embedding the ADFS Charter of Rights

LEVEL 4: TRANSFORMATION

Design and deliver a transition away from emergency food

FOR: Local authorities, food partnerships, statutory services, and VCSE organisations

WHAT: A comprehensive, systems-level training to support local authorities in using the CRF to design and deliver a transition away from emergency food aid.